None

Mr Winston Roddick CB, QC

Post:

QC
Recorder

Interests in Companies or Bodies active within the television industry:

- No direct interest in any company or business. I am interviewed regularly (for next to nothing) on matters of legal and constitutional interest by the BBC, ITV and private directors for programmes to be broadcast on radio and television channels in Wales.

Interests in General Businesses:

- I am a QC in an independent practice and a Recorder of the Crown Court. As Recorder, I sit in the Crown Court from time to time and am paid for doing so on a daily basis. Should a conflict arise between my judicial duties and my duties as a member of the S4C Authority I would deal with it there and then and, if appropriate, declare my interest in S4C.

Interests in other bodies:

For completeness, I shall set out all of my interests, past and present, that have the potential to create a conflict of interest. I do not receive remuneration from any current employment.

- Bencher, Grays Inn
- Vice-President, Aberystwyth University
- Leader, Wales and Chester Circuit
- Sponsor, Caernarfon Rugby Club
- President of Creigiau Choir and Vice-president of the Caernarfon Male Voice Choir
- Counsel General, National Assembly for Wales 1998-2003.
- Chairman, Standing Committee Legal Wales

Matters to note:

- My wife and I hold shares in numerous companies on the stock market. Since a professional company runs our portfolio, we don't choose the shares nor decide when to buy and sell. I receive a pension (annuity) from Equitable Life and I have a pension with the Prudential.
- I am friends with Arwel Ellis Owen, Director of Cambrensis, (an independent production company). Arwel Ellis Owen has also published press releases for me from time to time.
- I receive a pension from the Civil Service.

Mr Rheon Tomos
