Freedom of Information

S4C is subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information ("FOI") Act 2000. If any respondent considers that any information supplied by it to S4C pursuant to this invitation is commercially sensitive or confidential in nature, this should be highlighted explicitly and the reasons for its sensitivity set out in full in the response. S4C will take account of this in deciding whether to release the information in response to Freedom of Information Requests. However, respondents accept that S4C will release such information if it receives legal advice that it must do so in order to comply with FOI Act.

Data Protection

Respondents authorise S4C to process all information provided as part of their response including but not limited to publishing such information and/or providing it to third parties and confirm that they have obtained all necessary third party consents to enable S4C to do so.

Response

Organisation

If you want part of your response, your name or your organisation to be confidential, can S4C still publish a reference to the contents of your response (including, for any confidential parts, a general summary that does not disclose the specific information or enable you to be identified)?

I confirm that the correspondence supplied with this cover sheet is a formal consultation response. It can be published (subject to that which I have noted to be kept confidential above) on S4C's website, unless otherwise specified on this cover sheet, and I authorise S4C to make use of the information in this response to meet its legal requirements. If I have sent my response by email, S4C can disregard any standard e-mail text about not disclosing email contents and attachments.
